Thank you to everyone who has returned their membership forms and helped us update our database. If you haven't returned your forms, they are available online at dodgecountyarts.org.

Book Sale

Thanks again to everyone who volunteered and helped us set up the book sale including Tekla W., Chuck V., Chris F. and so many others. Although the numbers were down due to covid concerns, we still had a nice turnout. We're toying with ideas of having a permanent book sale which might rotate by author or genre. We'll keep you updated.

Plein Air Festival

We aren't taking any of the covid issues facing our community and the world lightly. We're monitoring the news as the safety of our members and the community are our highest concern. That being said we will move forward with our plans for a Plein Air Festival. The event kicks off with a Plein Air demonstration by noted artist Thomas Buchs from noon to 4 pm on August 22nd. You can sign up on our website. Tickets are free, but we do request that you sign up in advance so we can plan for space. We are working to keep everyone safe. Check out on our website and Facebook page for regular updates.

Paint the Fence

Don't forget to get your fence post soon to paint. Due to the current situation causing everyone to do home projects, wood is short supply. Get yours while you can by calling us at the DCCA or sending an email to info@dodgecountyarts.org Ric & Connie Fiegel have graciously donated toward 4 boards. If you have a hardship and would like one of these boards, give us a call.

Wine Tour

We will be one of the stops on the 2020 Beaver Dam Chamber Wine Tour featuring "Wines of Wisconsin" on September 18th. For more information and tickets, call the Chamber at 920-887-8879.

The Kids are the Future

We're still looking for volunteers and board members, but just as importantly we are looking for those willing to help design programs based around the youth of our area. Whether that be non-touch projects or virtual projects, we would love to hear your ideas and have you help.

Holiday Gift Gallery

It's finally warm, so let's talk about the holidays. We have several ideas that might give artists more exposure and keep everyone safe. More details soon!
